LOCAL SCHOOLS ARE LOVIN' IT THANKS TO McTEACHER'S NIGHT FUNDRAISER SET FOR THIS EVENING

St. Louis, March 7, 2006 – Tonight local schoolteachers and principals will exchange their lesson plans and rulers for spatulas and aprons to show their support for McTeacher's Night, a unique fundraiser that has raised more than one million dollars for regional schools over the last three years. More than half of the McDonald's Restaurants in the St. Louis/Metro East area are participating in tonight's event from 4-8 p.m., which is the first McTeacher's Night of 2006.

All school levels (elementary, middle and senior high schools) are represented on McTeacher's Night, including public, private and parochial schools. McTeacher's Night provides students and parents the opportunity to increase school pride and generate funds for their school's educational programs. "McTeacher's Night is a wonderful way for everyone in the school to be a part of a very successful fundraising event," said a local St. Louis schoolteacher. (See attached list of participating Missouri & Illinois schools/McDonald's).

Participating McDonald's restaurants donate a percentage of sales raised on McTeacher's Night to its partner school. More than $41,500 dollars was raised during the last McTeacher's Night, and this year the participating schools and restaurants aim to surpass that number.

"Events such as McTeacher's Night provide an effective tool and resource for the schools in our communities to raise money. McDonald's is proud to lend that support," said Mike Klak, McDonald's St. Louis Co-op President.

McDonald's USA, LLC, is the leading foodservice provider in the United States serving a variety of wholesome foods made from quality ingredients to millions of customers every day. More than 80 percent of McDonald's 13,700 U.S. restaurants are independently owned and operated by local franchisees.
