LOCAL SCHOOLS ARE LOVIN' IT THANKS TO McTEACHER'S NIGHT FUNDRAISER SET FOR MARCH 4th

St. Louis, February 28, 2008 – Local schoolteachers and principals will exchange their lesson plans and rulers for spatulas and aprons to show their support for McTeacher's Night, a unique fundraiser that has raised more than one million dollars for regional schools over the last five years. This year 87 McDonald's Restaurants throughout the St. Louis/Metro East area will be participating in the first McTeacher's Night of 2008 on Tuesday, March 4th from 4-8 pm.

All school levels (elementary, middle and senior high schools) are represented on McTeacher's Night, including public, private and parochial schools. McTeacher's Night provides students and parents with the opportunity to increase school pride and generate funds for their school's educational programs. "McTeacher's Night makes it easy for everyone! We raised a ton of money and all we had to do was invite family and friends to dinner," said a local St. Louis schoolteacher.

Participating McDonald's restaurants donate a percentage of sales raised on McTeacher's Night to its partner school. A record breaking $50,628 was raised during the last McTeacher's Night, and this year the participating schools and restaurants aim to surpass that number.

"The crew love it, the teachers love it, it is just a fun night where we can get involved with our community. McDonald's is proud to be a part of a program that gives so much to our local schools," said Mark Proctor, McDonald's St. Louis/Metro East Co-op President. (Attached is a list of participating schools and store locations).
