CARDINALS & REDBOX™ HOST PREMIERE SCREENING OF MILLIONS OF CARDINALS MEMORIES: BUSCH STADIUM 1966-2005

St. Louis, November 2005- On the evening of November 28th, members of the Cardinals, local celebrities and a handful of lucky fans will gather at the Tivoli, in the Loop, to pay tribute to Busch Stadium with a premiere screening of the official DVD, before it becomes available for public purchase in redbox.

The Cardinals, in conjunction with Major League Baseball, have captured the most memorable Cardinals moments from the past 40 seasons in “Millions of Cardinals Memories: Busch Stadium 1966-2005.” It showcases amazing performances by Cardinals greats, legendary events at Busch Stadium, including a salute to Chris Carpenter’s Cy Young Award and Albert Pujols’ National League’s MVP Award.

A number of former Cardinals players and management are planning to be in attendance, such as Whitey Herzog, Bob Forsch, Walt Jocketty, Al Hrabosky and Mark Lamping, just to name a few. Fans who wish to attend this exclusive event will have the chance to win tickets from the various contests happening through The Big 550 KTRS, Z107, FOXY 95, Y98, KSHE 95 and Show Me St. Louis.

“Busch Stadium holds a lot of fond memories for Cardinals fans,” said Mark Lamping, St. Louis Cardinals President. “The Cardinals and Major League Baseball want every fan to have the opportunity to own their own piece of Busch Stadium and we believe this commemorative DVD is perfect for fans of all ages.”

“Millions of Memories: Busch Stadium 1966-2005” goes on sale for $17.99 plus tax at redbox (located at participating St. Louis/Metro East McDonald’s Restaurants) on November 29, 2005. The DVD will be available in limited quantities, while supplies last.
